An idea spawned by the wife of a creator who has been in the Crypto space since late 2013, who loves to help educate others and share knowledge with their respective communities. They even put a guide out to help users create their own Solana token without having to spend a lot through one of the many "Easy Token creator" apps. Small timer with a big heart that loves helping others, whoever they are, and wanted to make a project with a tangible benefit. Simple plan is to grow the community and spread positivity, while Memeing away! Come join us and LOVE THAT COOCHIE COIN!

Okay, now on a serious note, see below...
